

AN INVITATION...

...to meet the men on the memorials

Find out about the 37 men from Fawcett Forest, Longsleddale, Patton, Scalthwaiterigg, Selside and Skelsmergh who died in the First World War. Come and discover the stories behind the names on our war memorials.

This free centenary exhibition will be in Skelsmergh Community Hall and church on the weekend of 10–11 November 2018, 10am-4pm

This is a unique opportunity to visit a professionally-printed exhibition put together with the help of many local people that also explores some of the ways that the war was experienced locally. Refreshments available.

On Friday 9 November at 6.30pm Selside School students will present a remembrance-themed concert in Skelsmergh church. On Sunday 11 November at 10am there will be a commemorative service in the church and the Bryce Street Strummers will be at the exhibition from 3pm to provide an upbeat climax to our centenary commemorative weekend.
